

2016

MODOC RAILROAD

Fee Schedule

CERTIFIED CONDUCTOR

CFR 49 §242 License

LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEER

CERTIFICATION

CFR 49 §240 Class I License

PROGRAM	COST	LENGTH
New Certified Conductor CFR 49 §242 License	$6000	Six Weeks
New Locomotive Engineer CFR 49 §240 Class I License	$13,000	Twelve Weeks See notation A
Re - Certified Conductor CFR 49 §242 License	$2,500	One Week See notation B - D
Re - Locomotive Engineer CFR 49 §240 Class I License	$5,000	One Week See notation C - D

- ◆ Personal Student loan program available.
- ◆ No implied promise or guarantee of employment.
- ◆ Instruction delivered as unpaid internship program.
- ◆ Intern must be willing to accept recruitment any where in United States.
- ◆ Intern must understand that all applicable Federal Rules, Regulations and Laws must be followed during railroad internship training.
- ◆ Intern payment must be certified check only.
- ◆ Intern housing, meals and other ancillary costs not included.

Modoc Railroad is a Class III shortline, authorized by the Surface Transportation Board. All training programs given by Modoc Railroad for conductors and locomotive engineers are required by Federal Law, and have been approved and are required for use by the Federal Railroad Administration.

Notation A	Must be a certified conductor, either from Modoc or other railroad
Notation B	CFR 49 §242 License must not have expired more than 730 days
Notation C	CFR 49 §240 License must not have expired more than 730 days
Notation D	If more than 730 days, Re-Certification not available

On - Site inspections available for a cost of $100. By reservation only.